

All in.

Here's the idea:

Just like we read in the book of Acts, the Ginghamburg Movement spread through Christ-followers meeting in homes. This kit is designed for you to use with any small group of people thirsty for more of God.

Group Guidelines

Read these out loud to start every meeting:

1. Everyone shares in sentences, not paragraphs.
2. Focus only on what this passage is saying, not on other passages.
3. Focus only on what this group is seeing.
4. Give people time to respond. Silence is OK.
5. The host should facilitate discussion, not teach.

Host Guidelines

1. Keep the session on schedule and complete all sections, though not necessarily all questions.
2. Prepare beforehand by studying the passage, looking for the main idea, and thinking of some examples, stories or applications from your own life.
3. Respond to questions by asking the group, "What in the passage helps us answer that question?"
4. Respond to distracting comments by asking, "Where is that found in this passage?"
5. Respond to strange answers by asking, "Help us understand what you are thinking."

Talk

What are you thankful for?

What is causing you stress?

Who needs our help?

How can we help them?

Read

Pick one person to read the full passage out loud.

Select verse and read again

Choose an individual verse to explore.

You may choose more than one verse, but make sure to do one at a time.

Retell

One person retells the verse, and others fill in what is missing.

Read & Look

Read the verse again. Discuss what this verse says about God, Jesus or God's plan.

Read & Look Again

Read the verse once more.

Discuss what this verse says about humanity.

Repeat for each scripture your group chooses.*

Inside me:

According to this study, what am I doing well?

What do I need to change?

Who else?

Who needs to hear this story, and how can I tell them? Who can I invite to study the Bible?

Hey Parents!

Here's what we're asking of you...

This is an invitation into a life rhythm of spiritual dialogue.

Immediately after worship:

Debrief to learn what everyone heard.

Sometime during the week:

Read the weekly scripture together to hear what God is saying to each individual.

While eating meals:

Lead focused discussion to establish values; Parent as Teacher.

While going to bed:

Have conversation to build intimacy; Parent as Counselor.

While traveling together:

Dialogue informally about life; Parent as Friend.

While waking up:

Use encouraging words to instill purpose; Parent as Coach.

All in.
